DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 6/2/04 has been entered.

Election/Restrictions

2. Applicant's election of the invention of Group I, Claims 14-24 in the reply filed on 3/3/04 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)). It is noted that newly added Claims 30-33 are directed to the invention of Group I as well and will be examined on the merits.

3. Claims 25-29 continue to stand as being withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 3/3/04.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Art Unit: 3729

5. Claims 14-19, 21-24 and 30-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter, which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

In Claim 14, the newly added limitations of “while defining a non-conductive region having no conductive material, therebetween” (lines 7-8) are new matter. With particular emphasis on the term of “while” (line 7), this term implies that the “non-conductive region having no conductive material” (line 8) is formed simultaneously, or at the same time, with “forming a conductive material...a common electrode are formed” (lines 5-7), which is not supported by the specification and drawings as originally filed. The specification and drawings do not support formation of the “conductive material layer”, “filling the through holes”, and formation of the “first conductive region” and “second conductive region”, all at the same time.

The same problems above in Claim 14 also occur in Claim 15.

6. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.

7. Claims 14-19, 21-24 and 30-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In Claim 14, it is unclear from the disclosure what is meant by the phrase of “while defining a non-conductive region having no conductive material, therebetween” (lines 7-8). The phrase is misleading and confusing because it is impossible to determine how the “nonconductive region having no conductive material” is formed simultaneously with the formation of the “conductive material layer”, “first conductive region” and “second conductive region”. Furthermore, the phrase of “therebetween” (line 8) is incomplete and misleading because it is unclear what previous claimed elements are being referred to with respect to the “non-conductive region”.

The same problems above with Claim 14 also occur in Claim 15.

NOTE: No art rejections have been applied to the claims since there are a great deal of confusion and uncertainty as to the proper interpretation of the limitations of claims. Therefore, it would not be proper to reject such claims on the basis of prior art. See MPEP 2173.06.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 14-19, 21-24 and 30-33 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection set forth above.
